The Committee of Seventy

In 2004, Seventy celebrated its Centennial year as Philadelphia's non-partisan political watchdog organization. Our members, contributors, and volunteers represent the full range of the political spectrum. They are bound together by a strong commitment to fair elections and to honest and efficient government. Seventy advances these goals by a variety of means, including advocacy, civic education, litigation, and public policy research.

During our century of service, Seventy has had many high profile successes: the adoption of the municipal civic service system, the adoption of the 1919 and 1951 Home Rule Charters giving Philadelphians broad powers of local governance, the progressive elimination of most election fraud and intimidation, and the successful transition to electronic voting machines in 2002.

Seventy has fought the good fight in countless other cases and provided legal guidance to more citizens and candidates than we could ever count. These may be small victories in the context of our mission and history, but for the many individuals helped by our staff and our volunteers, the vindication of an important right or the direction to a much needed government service has often been the end of a long and frustrating road.

Unlike most other Progressive Era good government organizations, Seventy has remained vigorous and independent due to the commitment of our city and region. In November 2004, over 400 volunteers participated in our Election Day watchdog program, an extraordinary number considering the many opportunities to get involved with partisan political campaigns and other Election Day efforts.

Taking advantage of technological opportunities, such as the Internet, has enabled Seventy to expand our geographic scope to serve as an educational and informational resource for citizens throughout the Commonwealth and beyond, and both our practical and historical resources are constantly growing to meet the needs of voters, candidates, students and journalists.

To serve as an Election Day volunteer or to subscribe to our free e-newsletter, News You Can Use, please send an e-mail to info@seventy.org or call the office at 215-557-3600. For a full description of our services, and for 24 hour access to our publications and information resources, please visit our website at www.seventy.org.

Tax deductible contributions from citizens, foundations and corporations are greatly appreciated and ensure that Seventy will remain an effective and independent advocate for the public interest.

Registration and Voting Information

TO VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA ON ELECTION DAY, YOU MUST MEET TWO REQUIREMENTS:

You must be an eligible citizen. And you must register to vote not later than 30 days prior to the election.*

1. You are Eligible to Vote: If you are a U.S. citizen, AND you will be 18 years of age by Election Day (you do not have to be 18 when you register), AND you are a resident of Pennsylvania.

2. You May Register to Vote:
– BY MAIL. You can obtain a mail application form from your county registration office or at your neighborhood post office, library or state liquor store. After you complete and mail it, to the county registration office, you will be notified by your county registration office when you are officially registered.

– IN PERSON at your county registration office - in Philadelphia on the fifth floor of Riverview Place at 520 N. Delaware Avenue (at Spring Garden Street), or in Room 142 City Hall; in the suburban counties at the county court house.

– WHEN OBTAINING OR RENEWING YOUR DRIVER'S LICENSE AND AT CERTAIN STATE AGENCY OFFICES. All citizens may register to vote when applying for or renewing a motor vehicle driver's license or in state welfare offices, vocational rehabilitation offices and armed services locations.

– USING THE WEB by downloading the National Mail Voter Registration Form from the FEC. (Make sure you print it on regular paper stock, fill it out completely, sign it, and mail it in an envelope with the correct postage. If you live in Philadelphia, mail it to 520 N. Delaware Avenue, 5th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19123.) Or you could request one to be mailed to you by the PA Department of State. Online registration is currently not allowed under the law.

*Note: New Voter ID Requirements

Pennsylvania law now requires that registered voters who appear to vote for the first time in an election division to present a form of identification or vote by provisional ballot. Acceptable forms of identification include your voter registration card, PA driver's license, passport, student or employee identification cards, current utility bill or bank statement. See the complete list on our website, including information about the identification requirement as related to absentee and alternative ballots. If you have questions about these requirements, please call our office.
