

Practicing Deliberation

26

Imagine that there are two candidates running for office. One is young and is saying he will bring new ideas to the office. The other is older and talks about his/her experience. Which do you think is more important, a fresh approach or years of experience and why?

Practicing Deliberation

29

At 18-years-old an American citizen can register to vote. Imagine it is the first time you and your friends are eligible to vote, but none of you like the candidates. Do you think you should decide to vote anyway? Why or why not?

